MASSEY HALL

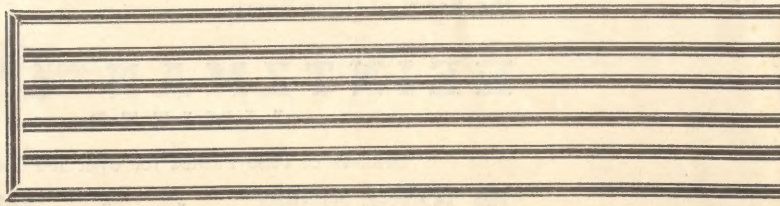
SEASON 1950 - 1951

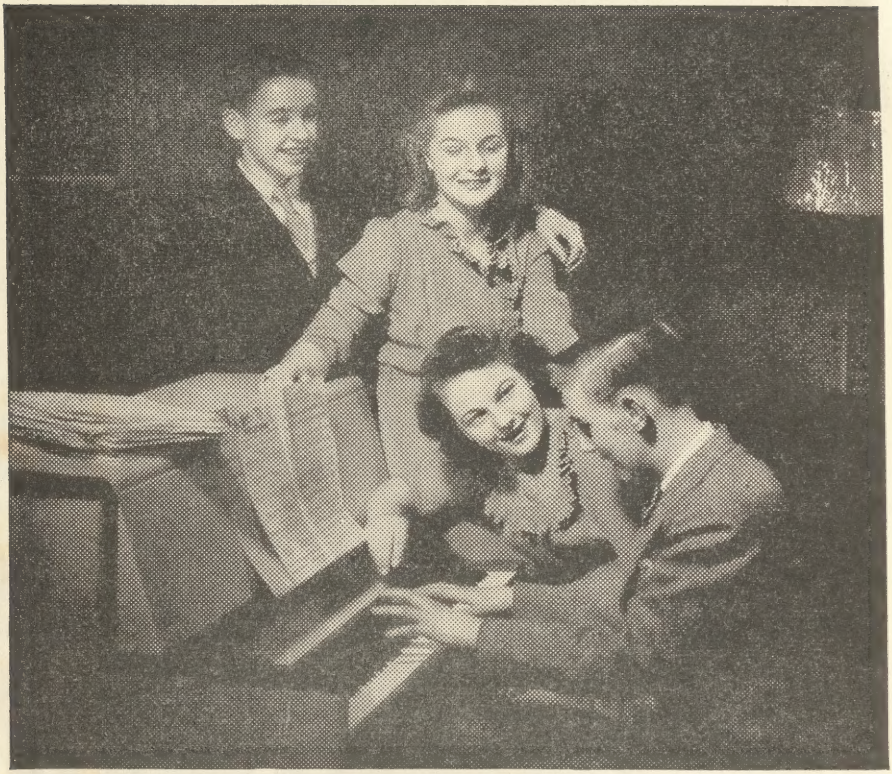
The Toronto Symphony Orchestra

SIR ERNEST MacMILLAN, Conductor

PAUL SCHERMAN, Assistant Conductor

FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 2nd. 1951





In a friendly house, there's always a piano

An evening spent around the piano evokes the shared gaiety which turns guests into friends. For, be it ever so humble, there's no music like the music we make ourselves. Encourage your family's ability to entertain a group or accompany a performer . . . and your house will echo often to the sound of friendly voices.

The Heintzman piano you choose now is truly an investment in lasting pleasure. The beautifully designed case, hand carved, typifies the finest craftsmanship. Heintzman pianos are renowned for their true, resonant tone and responsive action.

To thousands of Canadian families, a Heintzman is the heart of their home.
